Chuck Out Challenge – coming to a Community Group near you

Harrow Agenda 21's Waste and Recycling Action Group will be taking its Chuck Out Challenge on tour around Harrow this spring. The group has come up with a fun game to help people understand about recycling their household waste.

It's easy to be confused about which box or bin to put your rubbish in, so if any community groups holding events or get-togethers would like to take the challenge they can get in touch with Harrow Agenda 21 by emailing wastegroup@harrowagenda21.org or calling 020 8933 0188.

Waste Group Chair, Mick Oliver, said, "We had a hoot at the Under One Sky Festival last year with our interactive bin game. Seeing councillors and residents equally confused made us realise just how important it is to make recycling easier".

Note for editors

Harrow Agenda 21 is Harrow's own independent environmental watchdog. Action Groups cover waste, energy, planning, transport, air pollution, consumer issues and education. Chairs of action groups are available for contact on these areas. For more information see www.harrowagenda21.org.

Harrow Agenda 21 is a partnership of community groups, individuals, schools, businesses and the council. It is committed to making Harrow a more sustainable place to live and work.
